

Prokrity o Jibon Foundation won the Chand Sultana Award 2015

Dhaka Ahsania Mission has been introduced Chand Sultana Award from 2001 in the name of Chand Sultana (1953 -1999), an eminent development activist in Bangladesh who wrote above 50 books on different development issues in different form. Prokrity o Jibon Foundation won the Chand Sultana Award 2015 for it's outstanding contribution on environmental conservation, research and wild life diversity. Mr. Mukit Mazumder Babu is the Chairman of the Foundation.

The award giving ceremony was held on 27 April 2016 at DAM head office auditorium. DAM Executive Director Dr. M. Ehsanur Rahman delivered the welcome speech.

Mr. Hasanul Haq Inu, Hon'ble Information Minister, Government of the People's Republic of Bangladesh, handed over the award as chief guest to Mr. Mukit Mazumder Babu. The special guest was DG of PIB, Mr. Md. Shah Alamgir.

In this occasion the Hon'ble Information Minister in his speech said, Chand Sultana was a great woman and she made contribution in different sectors of the society. He also said, consumptive behavior and social chaos hindering development and the state should interfere to alleviate poverty.

Director General of Press Institute of Bangladesh (PIB) Md. Shah Alamgir said, all the time we are thinking about ourselves. But we are not thinking about giving something back to the country or the society. It is not possible to harm the country if we love it.

After receiving the Chand Sultana Award 2015 Mr. Mukit Mazumdar Babu expressed his gratitude for selecting their organization for the award. He said, conservation of the environment and wild life diversity are the responsibilities to all. We should work together for the sake of ourselves.

Dhaka Ahsania Mission President Mr. Kazi Rafiqul Alam, who presided over the function, said, Khan Bahadur Ahsanullah, who established the Mission, used to think about the environment and Dhaka Ahsania Mission works for the environment as well.