

PKS gets Chand Sultana Award

Pratibandhi Kalyan Sangstha (PKS), an organization for the persons with disabilities, secured Chand Sultana Award- 2016 for its outstanding contribution in education, life skill development and treatment of the persons with disabilities.

Director of PKS Khairuzzaman Munnu and its Advisor Prof Dr Hossain Monsur received the award at a ceremony at Dhaka Ahsania Mission Auditorium in the capital's Dhanmondi on Sunday, says a press release.

Prof Dr Shamser Ali, founding Vice-Chancellor of Bangladesh Open University, was present at the programme as the chief guest while ADD Country Director Shafiqul Islam as the special guest.

Dhaka Ahsania Mission (DAM) President Kazi Rafiqul Alam presided over the ceremony where DAM Executive Director Dr M Ehsanur Rahman delivered the address of welcome.

Mentionable, Chand Sultana Award was introduced in the name of Material Developer and Literacy Expert Late Chand Sultana in 2001. DAM has awarded nine noted persons and six organisations so far.