

Group: 1

Questions-1: Why is it necessary to develop material at the local level?

Answers:

- Reduce dependency on centrally developed materials;
- Develop capacity at the local level;
- Reduce cost of materials;
- Promotion of local issues;
- Influence people about needs of local materials;

Questions-2: What are the strengths and weaknesses of local material?

Answers:

Strengths	Weakness
Develop ownership	Lack of upto date information
Reduce cost of material	Lack of writing skills
Use of local resource	Lack of physical facilities for material preservation
Utilization of local talents	Lack of understanding about the strengths of local material

Questions-3: How to eradicate the weakness from material developed at the local level?

Answers:

- Collecting up to date information
- Receiving training on material development;
- Review and examine good materials;
- Seek support of resource persons;
- Increase practice of writing;
- Select person for material preservation;

Questions-4: Who should be included as stakeholders in the local level material development?

Answers:

- Union parishad(UP);
- Department of women affairs;
- Department of youth;
- School and mosque;
- NGOs;
- Youth groups,
- UISC.

Questions-5: Who can help in the process of material development with cooperation from the stakeholders? And how?

Answers:

Stakeholders	Role
UISC	Providing information, support in developing digital materials.
Department of women affairs;	Training and information support
Department of youth;	Training and information support
School and mosque;	Information support
NGOs;	Training and information support

Questions-6: How to maximize use of local material development?

Answers:

- Create network of CLCs for development and use of materials

Group: 2

Questions-1: Why is it necessary to develop material at the local level?

Answers:

- To increase the interest of CLC members;
- To increase the awareness of people;
- To increase the capacity of the CLC members;
- To reduce the cost of materials;
- To reduce the time of material collection;
- To increase the communication among different local stakeholders.

Questions-2: What are the strengths and weaknesses of local material?

Answers:

Strengths	Weakness
Increase participation	Problem of copy and printing
Reduce cost of material	Problem of getting up to date information at the local level
Use of local resource and wisdom
Utilization of local talents
Increase supply of local material

Questions-3: How to eradicate the weakness from material developed at the local level?

Answers:

- Making of effective plan for collection and distribution of local materials;
- Distribution of materials among CLCs;
- Capacity building at the local level for material development;
- Resource mobilization for copy and printing of local materials;
- Make plan for proper preservation of material

Questions-4: Who should be included as stakeholders in the local level material development?

Answers:

- UISC;
- Upazila health complex;
- Community clinic;
- Education officer;
- Social welfare officer;
- NGOs.

Questions-5: Who can help in the process of material development with cooperation from the stakeholders? And how?

Answers:

- To provide information support;
- To provide training support
- To provide financial support.

Questions-6: How to maximize use of local material development?

Answers:

- Create network of CLCs for development and use of materials

Group: 3

Questions-1: Why is it necessary to develop material at the local level?

Answers:

- Will develop ownership;
- Arose interest to know and develop new issues;
- Will create a platform for sharing of information;
- Cost will be reduced;
- Solutions will be evolved for local problems;
- Utilization of local resource will be ensured;
- Demand for materials will be reduced.

Questions-2: What are the strengths and weaknesses of local material?

Answers:

Strengths	Weakness
To mitigate local problems	Preservation will be a problem
Cost will be reduced	Distribution will be a problem due to cost of coping of local materials
Interest towards materials will be increased	Risk of using of incorrect information
Local talents will be recognized and will be promoted	Lack of attractiveness

Questions-3: How to eradicate the weakness from material developed at the local level?

Answers:

- Improvement of material preservation system in the CLC;
- Make copy of local level materials and distribute among different CLCs;
- Collect correct information with the help of UP and UISC;
- Development of attractive materials.

Questions-4: Who should be included as stakeholders in the local level material development?

Answers:

- Block supervisors,
- Health workers,
- Illustrators,
- Teachers,
- Information officer,
- Youth development officer,
- Local resource persons.

Questions-5: Who can help in the process of material development with cooperation from the stakeholders? And how?

Answers:

- Block supervisors: Providing training and relevant information;
- Health workers: Providing training and relevant information;
- Local illustrators: Support in drawing illustration;
- Teachers: Providing information and editing of materials;
- Information officer: Providing training and relevant information;
- Youth development officer: Providing training and relevant information;
- Local resource persons: Providing relevant information and support in development;

Questions-6: How to maximize use of local material development?

Answers:

- Exchange of local materials among CLCs;
- Increase number of local materials;
- Use of different methods of use of materials.

Group: 4

Questions-1: Why is it necessary to develop material at the local level?

Answers:

- Use of local resource;
- To get materials which is developed considering local need, interest, practice and culture
- To ensure participation of all local stakeholders;
- To develop ownership;
- To get comments and ideas of users ;
- Material will be less costly;
- Dependency will be reduced on centrally developed materials;
- Material development skills will be decentralized;
- Local capacity will be increased;
- Material developer will be created at the local level.

Questions-2: What are the strengths and weaknesses of local material?

Answers:

Strengths	Weakness
Local wisdom and experience will be utilized	Lack of updated information
Changes can be done in the materials as per demand	Quality of material
Cost of material will be reduced	Lack of attractiveness

Questions-3: How to eradicate the weakness from material developed at the local level?

Answers:

- Check all information incorporated in the materials;
- Collect information from the relevant department;
- To form material development team at the local level to sustain the process and pay special attention during material development ;
- To organize material development workshop at the local level to share experience;
- Form a team at the organizational level to support and supervise material development work at the local level.

Questions-4: Who should be included as stakeholders in the local level material development?

Answers:

- CLC facilitators
- CLC members;
- Local administration;
- Teachers;
- Religious leaders,

- Youths group,
- Local club,
- NGO.
- Local resource persons.

Questions-5: Who can help in the process of material development with cooperation from the stakeholders? And how?

Answers:

Stakeholders	Process of involvement
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • CLC facilitators and members 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Assessment of materials needs through meeting and interview with people related with CLCs. • Decide topics of the material and form local level material development team.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Members of local administration and different departments 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Management committee of union resource center will organize meeting to decide type and topics of material needs to be developed. • Identify potential persons among different stakeholders for development of material and financial support for this.

Questions-6: How to maximize use of local material development?

Answers:

- Distribution of local materials through union resource center;
- Display and use of material union in the union resource center;
- Distribute copies of local material to the upazila and district officials for promotion and reproduction;
- Organize orientation meeting with local educational institutions and clubs and present local materials;
- Presentation of materials in the local market and local institutions;
- Use of local materials in different function and gatherings.