Make activities deep rooted to build a social movement

-Kazi Rafiqul Alam

The most important accomplishment of last year was our ability to materialise the philosophical thoughts of the founder of the Mission in our lives. Last year, visibility of our activities was displayed through televisions, newspapers and people.

A total of 35 lakh people were directly or indirectly benefited by our activities. We were able to teach about one lakh 10 thousand children. UNIQUE Project is a major successful project in the field of education. Services were provided to one lakh 20 thousand people in the area of livelihood while 16 lakh 93 thousand 410 people were served in the area of water and sanitation.

There was no fund when I first took responsibility of the Mission in July, 1976. I took an initiative to publish the Mission Barta for collection of fund. The then minister for textiles helped me a lot by providing advertisements.

Ahsanullah University of Science & Technology has taken an institutional shape in all spheres. I intend to take Ahsania Mission College to this level. ITVET was under Ahsanullah University of Science & Technology. Now it has been brought under direct control of the Mission. Drug Treatment Centre has become a well-established division. We were unable to satisfactorily enhance the Teachers' Training College and AICT. We are yet to turn Nogordola as a profitable concern. We are working but our activities are yet to be deep rooted in society. We shall have to build a social movement by deep rooting our activities.

Equal education for all children, opportunity for school admission of all students, freedom from tobacco and drug, prevention of trafficking of women and children, awareness on breast cancer, resisting school dropouts-we may build various movements. Until and unless we are able to build social movements, Ahsania Mission will have no visibility. We shall have to create partnership with print media and TV channel for this purpose. We shall have to work together with the public relations cell.

We have purchased 105 acres of land at Panchagarh for building a Children's City. In the meantime, its construction work has already begun. I hope to begin students' admission from next year. We have proposed to establish universities at Rajshahi and Khulna. If we get approval then we shall be able to establish the two universities in two places. AITB is yet to take shape. Work on a drug treatment centre at Jessore will be finished very soon. We are yet to commission the cancer hospital due to various reasons. Although our cancer hospital at Mirpur works satisfactorily but it is yet to run on break-even point. With a view to creating skilled manpower, we shall have to make good practices of all activities. No matter, in which division we do belong to, we shall have to strive hard to make other divisions self-sufficient.

Modernisation of Mission Barta a must following expansion of DAM activities in int'l arena

-Dr M Ehsanur Rahman

The year, 2012, is the 54th year of Dhaka Ahsania Mission (DAM). DAM is the oldest non-governmental organisation (NGO) in comparison with other NGOs of Bangladesh. Alongside, the main journal that represents Dhaka Ahsania Mission, namely quarterly Mission Barta, has attained the age of 34 years. Detail information on our 33 years of journey will be highlighted on the first issue of this year's Mission Barta. An initiative was undertaken to bring out the Ahsania Mission Barta in 1966. Its first (October-December) issue came out in 1977 through various procedures.

Alongside printed version of the Mission Barta, we have also launched an e-version. Every month, this comes out as e-bulletin. Following expansion of Mission's activities in the international arena, we have a plan to make a printed version of e-bulletin to bring dynamism in programme activities. In January, 2011, we brought out a compilation of essays of the founder of Mission which were presented at the monthly coordination meetings in 2010. The presentations of 2011 were published as workmission of Khan Bahadur Ahsanullah (R)- vol. 2.
